

General terms & conditions

For Newswise the algemene leveringsvoorwaarden (general terms & conditions) and privacyverklaring (privacy policy) of the CED-Groep apply. Also the following conditions apply. Newswise is a news medium which, inter alia, composes texts based on articles in daily and weekly newspapers and magazines. Newswise is part of Nieuwsbegrip. Nieuwsbegrip is affiliated with the Algemeen Nederlands Persbureau (ANP).

The subscription holder may only use the Newswise materials within the own school location. By this the physical location is meant: subscriptions are restricted to this physical location or address (this also applies to companies). Reproduction and/or use by third parties is strictly forbidden. Subscriptions are not provided to private persons.

The free trial is completely non-binding and automatically expires at the end of the trial period. If you want to continue using Newswise after this period, you may switch to a regular subscription. School locations may only apply for a trial subscription once.

For those with a paid subscription the following occurs before the expiration date. The subscription holder receives two emails. The first one, a month before the automatic renewal. The second one, two days before the automatic renewal. If the subscription holder does not respond to these emails, and the subscription is not ended before the expiration date, then the subscription will be automatically renewed. This implies that the holder may continue using Newswise.

CED-Groep is a not-for-profit organization. The personal data which are collected through Newswise, will not be sold or used for commercial purposes. These data will solely be used for the operation of Newswise within the educational context of the school. CED-Groep will handle all data which are collected through Newswise with great care.